

Main Street Monday!

May 27, 2014

And the winner is.....
Middlesboro was chosen by the NMSC as "One to Watch"! Which was announced at the conference opening plenary!
Congratulations to DDM and all their hard work.

My Old Kentucky Home winner will be announced soon!!

Happenings Around the State

2014 Schedule
Organized by Downtown Frankfort, Inc.

- May 30 Rebel Without A Cause
- June 13 The Conch Republic
- June 27 Frontier Band Blind Corn Liquor Pickers
- July 18 Sunset Blonde Vintage Voodoo
- August 1 Red Idle Rejects Here For the Party
- August 15 Kentucky Wild Horse Tricentenary Jackson
- August 29 Coralee & The Townies The Twiggensburys

Photos from Motown!

Opening Plenary! Kentucky in the front row !!

Isaac Kremer's presenting at conference "Using Tactical Urbanism to Preserve Downtowns" with Caitlin Horose of the Orton Family Foundation, and Mike Lydon with Street Plans Collaborative.

No birthdays that we are aware of for this issue. Let us know if we missed yours!

Toot Your Horn or someone else's!

No surprise here, Megan was chosen College of Charleston's Historic Preservation Outstanding Student for 2014

Happening Saturday, Don't forget!!

PRESERVATION MATTERS
2014 National Preservation Month Events in Danville and Boyle County

MAY 1-31
Historic Downtown Family Scavenger Hunts in Danville and Perryville, Danville-Boyle County Public Library

THURSDAY, MAY 15
2014 Landmarks to Watch Community and Local Media Event 1:30 p.m., Jacobs Hall, KSD Campus

FRIDAY, MAY 23
Celebration of 150 Year Anniversary of March of Danville African-American Troops to Camp Nelson, time TBD, Constitution Square Historic Site

SATURDAY, MAY 31
Tax Credit and Façade Rehabilitation Workshop, led by the Kentucky Heritage Council 9 a.m. to noon, Jacobs Hall

Sunday, June 1
Bluegrass & Boyle Landmark Trust Open House Event, 2-4 p.m., Waveland

Visit downtowndanville.com for more information

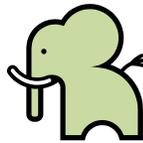

State Dinner at Traffic Jam & Snug which was featured on Diners, Drive-Ins and Dives.

Waiting for the bus after lunch in Mexicantown.

Don't forget !!

Series 3 conference with Main Street component will be taking place in Pikeville August 1-2! Minta is looking forward to sharing her community with you!

Jody and Covington board member, Jim Guthrie, exploring the city of Ferndale a former GAMSA winner.

Thursday, May 30th, Mike Radeke and I will be doing an educational session at Elkhorn Crossing School.

Sad news to report: Scot Walters father passed away last Thursday. Brown's funeral home in Elizabethtown is in charge of arrangements.

Order Yours Today!

Next week a few buildings from Detroit, we saw sad ones and some fabulous ones!!